

NEW LECTURE SERIES

KANT AND CONTEMPORARY PHILOSOPHY

The Kant and Contemporary Philosophy Research Colloquium at the Ruhr University Bochum brings together two groups of Kant scholars interested in the relevance of Kant's critical philosophy for central issues in contemporary epistemology, ethics, political philosophy and aesthetics. It is jointly organized by the Kant in South America Consortium (Marie Curie RISE project n.777786) and by the Digital Kant Center North Rhine-Westphalia, project location Bochum.

Location:

Ruhr University Bochum,
IA 02/461

All sessions take place in a hybrid format.

To participate via Zoom please send an e-mail to marie.goebel@ruhr-uni-bochum.de.

For more information about the organizers please see:

KANTINSA - Kant in South America:

<https://www.kantinsa.eu>
Project coordinator:
Luigi Caranti

Digital Kant Center North Rhine-Westphalia:

<https://kant-zentrum-nrw.de>
Project leaders Bochum:
Corinna Mieth and
Philipp Richter
Project coordinator Bochum:
Marie Göbel

LECTURES IN 2022

November 14th 2022 | 4 - 6pm

Henny Blomme (KU Leuven):

Strategic Ambiguity in Kant's Political Philosophy

Discussant: Luigi Caranti, University of Catania

November 28th 2022 | 4 - 6pm

Susan Meld Shell (Boston College):

Kant and the Politics of Beauty

Discussant: Luigi Caranti, University of Catania

December 9th 2022 | 4 - 6pm

Marie Göbel (Ruhr University Bochum):

Human Dignity as the Foundation of Human Rights

Discussant: Luigi Caranti, University of Catania

December 12th 2022 | 4 - 6pm

Reza Mosayebi (Ruhr University Bochum): Kant on Race Mixing

Discussants: Luigi Caranti, University of Catania, and Marie Göbel, Ruhr University Bochum